

Ms. Gardner is a choral conductor who knows how to communicate her vision of music and her passion for choral singing to choristers of all calibers. Her skills as a performer and her in-depth knowledge of voice and singing make her a choral conductor whose know-how ensures that concerts are of the highest musical quality.

She is committed to the development of culture in the region, and more specifically to the promotion of choral singing in Canton de Hatley and the municipalities of the Memphrémagog MRC.

With a master's degree in choral conducting from Université de Sherbrooke (2011), a master's degree in voice from Université de Montréal (1995), a bachelor's degree in piano from McGill University (1984) and a bachelor's degree in music pedagogy from Université du Québec à Montréal (1985), Lise Gardner founded Ensemble Vocal Massawippi in 2015. During her career as a musician and teacher, she has also assumed the musical direction of several vocal ensembles in the Sherbrooke and Montreal regions.

Choir director

- L'Ensemble Vocal Massawippi fondé en 2015, known as : Chœur du Canton de Hatley.
- Chœur Sercovie, Sherbrooke (2016 – ...)
- Chorale "La clé des chants" of Coaticook" (2011-2013)
- Chorale de l'école Mitchell-Montcalm (1995 – 1999, 2012-2013).
- Opéra Bouffe du Québec, Laval (2000 – 2001)
- Chœur Florilège, Sherbrooke (1998 – 1999)
- Chœur du Collège François Delaplace (1998 – 2001)
- Chœur Anima Musica, Montréal (1997 – 1998)
- Rassemblement choral CSRS (1998 – 2012)

Soloist

- Ms. Gardner was guest soloist with the OSS under the direction of Stéphane Laforest (2003)
- She has also given several concerts as part of various ensembles at the Université de Montréal: opera workshop, baroque music workshop and ensemble music workshop, as well as several classical singing concerts (1990 - 2023).

Passionate about the arts in general and an artist at heart, Mrs. Gardner spends her spare time painting in oils.