

Les Sangs-Mêlés-2023

Nathalie FONTAINE

Originally from the Eastern Townships, she studied occupational therapy in Montreal. She has been working part-time with seniors in CHSLDs for the past twenty years, helping them to maintain their independence, comfort and quality of life in their final home. Even outside her job as caregiver, she enjoys taking care of her friends, family and community. In addition to her work, she has sung in choirs since childhood, but has also explored dance and theater, as the arts thrill her.

Christine CORMIER

Christine has been a community organizer at CIUSSS de l'Estrie - CHUS since 2016. She currently works at the CSSS de Memphrémagog, where she supports roundtables, municipalities and other collectives in their efforts to improve the health and well-being of the population. She is mainly involved in the Stanstead community and with community organizations that offer services and support to seniors.

Marie-Chantal CORBEIL

Has worked for over 15 years as a psychoeducator at CIUSSS de l'Estrie - CHUS, supporting families with children aged 0-18 who are experiencing mental health, behavioral or family relationship difficulties. Founder and coach of the Waterville indoor soccer league for children aged 7 to 12.

Martine CHIASSON (singer and percussionist)

Director of Centre l'Élan, a community resource in Magog that promotes creativity and arts therapy as tools for healing. Singing and music have a special place among the center's activities.

Sangi DROLET

A translator for 40 years, she translated English textbooks for French-speaking schools outside Quebec. She took her work with her to many countries which gave her an opportunity to learn about other cultures. Now retired, she continues to travel, especially in Europe where her in-laws live.

Cécile FRANCOZ (singer and violinist)

Musician, multi-instrumentalist, creator and owner of La Caravane, a cultural café near North Hatley, music educator with Jeunes Musiciens du Monde.

Alexander NIETO HERNANDEZ

Folk musician, multi-instrumentalist, guitar and ukulele teacher, Pizzaiolo at La Caravane.

